VOTE for the Amendments and you vote for repudiation.

REMEMBER that an enumeration is not a census, and that if we do not have an enumeration of the people in 1875 the present unjust Senatorial apportionment will continue until 1882. if not longer.

History and Fire.

History is said to repeat itself. It is called philosophy, teaching by example, some people do not see it so, and hence are slow to believe. If any one doubts that fire repeats itself, let them look to Norfolk and Baltimore. We heard rejoicing over the fire fiend repeating itself in Chicago and Boston, but not one word of rejoicing over the fires of Norfolk and Baltimore.

The North began this unholy rejoicing. The North rejoiced over the burning of Columbia and the South, or rather men of the South rejoiced over the burning of Boston and Chicago. We hope there will be no rejoicing North over the late fires in the cities of the South. Baltimore and Norfolk have the entire sympathy of the South, and we are sorry that Boston did not.

* * * * * * * *

We clip the above from the Raleigh Sentinel. We have patiently waited to see if the Southern press would call the Baltimore and Norfolk conflagrations, the vengeance of Divine Providence, but have so far failed to find any such allusions, nor did we expect to. We have but little faith in the religion of any man who gloats over the calamities of a people under the cloak of piety. There are men who go regularly to church and piously pray for the success of various missions and charitable objects, but never put their hands in their pockets for cash, one time. They solemnly beg the Lord to go to the heathen of all nations, to clothe the naked and feed the hungry, but utterly fail to do their share of the work. To our mind, the Lord don't need any such reminding, nor will He do the bidding of such hypocritical humbugs. We do not believe in the cant so common in the South that the immense conflagrations in Northern cities was a judgment for the devastations of war. It is remarkable with what resignation this class of Christians can see the decrees of Providence, when the affliction is upon others. The fire fiend has now committed some of its awful devastations in Southern cities and we hear a different story. We do not believe there will be any rejoicing in the North over the disasters which have befallen these more Southern cities. The bitterness engendered by the war has long since passed away in the North and their criticisms of the South are based uponthe fire eating style of a few, and happily decreasing, lot of journals.

The above extract shows its unfair criticism of the North when it says "The North rejoiced over the burning of Columbia and the South, or rather men of the South rejoiced over the burning of Boston and Chicago." Had the North desired the burning of Southern cities, Savannah, Charleston, Mobile, Wilmington and Richmond would have fallen to the flames when they were captured. The South must have desired the destruction of Richmond for it was fired before our troops entered it, and they had to stop and extinguish the flames. These are dead issues now and we do not care to write them up again, but we fail to see the justice of these parallels.

The North will not only sympathise with Baltimore and Norfolk, but if needed, will cheerfully and bountifully assist the desolated people who are houseless.

It seems to us that it is about time that such bitter recriminations should cease. There is no necessity for it and we cannot see how any benefit can be derived from it.

THE Constitution is good enough as it is. What is the use of changing it?

AFTER every nomination, whether for great or small offices, a few disorganizers hold an indignation meeting, pass resolutions, make a great noise and accomplish nothing. If an angel came to this county and superintended the management of the nominating conventions, these same men would repudiate its action—unless they were all nominated—and try to break up the ticket. Such men should be compelled to remain quiet or given to understand that any man bolting a regular nomination should stand the same as any other opposer of the party. It makes no difference whether a man votes a Democratic ticket or uses his influence in our party to oppose its regular nominees. Either one is an enemy to the party and should be treated accordingly. The little demonstrations made lately in the city, are too insignificant to be classed as a bolters movement, and now it does seem to us that these parties should be willing once in a while for the people to choose their candidates without asking their permission. It is the duty of every Republican to stand by his party nominations, for by so doing only can the party remain united and drosperous.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— The rains of Monday extinguished the fires that had for several days been raging in the woods along the line of the Camden and Atlantic City railroad, near Philadelphia. For twenty miles the ravages of the fire can be seen in blackened trunks of trees in detached patches. In several instances corn fields and orchards have been ravaged, but farm-houses have escaped through the exertions of neighbors.

— The surveying party in charge of Lieutenant Wooley arrived at Yankton, D. T., July 29, having been fired into by a war party of about fifty Sioux Indians of the Yanktonal band, from Fort Thompson, under the lead of a chief called Quilted Fan. This occurred about two hundred miles north of there, on the James river, the Indians declaring that the lands belonged to them, and that they would not allow them to be surveyed.

— Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd, a bridal couple, from Montgomery county, Va., on their way to Pulaski Alum Springs, were crossing Cloyd's mountain in a buggy during a thunder storm when the horse took fright at a flash of lightning and shied from the road, and the party were precipitated down a precipice 170 feet high. The buggy was shattered to pieces, and the groom badly bruised. The bride had her collar bone and ankle dislocated, teeth knocked out, and was otherwise badly injured. A friendly tree on the way saved them from going to the bottom.

— The Mexican Government has received dispatches confirming the report that the famous Losada had been taken prisoner by the national troops. He was captured on the 14th instant. The Tepec revolution is about ended. The Government is arranging to re-enforce the army on the Rio Grande. Minister Mejia declares he will not support the Government in its dictatorial powers. He is charged with holding revolutionary caucusses at the house of Santa Cedilia, a son-in-law of the late President Juarez.

— A Herald special dated Malaga, July 28, says: "The fighting between the soldiers and insurgents was severe yesterday and to-day. The insurgents occupied the churches of San Feeta, San Nicholas, and San Martin and the Plaza Major, which was strongly barricaded. The troops advancing yesterday along Alemeda suffered severely from the rebels on Puerta de la Mar and in the citadel. After sharp fighting there was a parley, but it came to nothing. Fighting was resumed and continued. The losses are heavy, 150 men being already reported dead. Three hundred barricades are erected in the heart of the city."

— The convention of delegates from portions of North Mississippi, West Tennessee, and Western Kentucky, interested in the movement looking to the formation of a new State out of those old fractions, asssemble at Jackson, Tenn., July 29. Henneth Raynor, of Mississippi, was elected president. A central committee of five from each State was appointed, with power to memorialize the Legislatures of the old States and Congress looking to the proper legislation necessary to the formation of the new State. After the appointment of other committees the convention adjourned until to-day. The convention was largely attended and enthusiastic. Delegates are arriving hourly.

A Hartford lady got ready to hang herself twice the other day, when callers interrupted. Some people always are coming when not wanted.

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at

The POST is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the up to the time of going to press,

AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the POST is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

Resolved, That the Secretary be ordered to notify the several members of the County Committee, through the columns of the Evening Post, to apply to the Secretary of this committee for tickets for or against the proposed amendments to the Constitution, on or after Friday next, the 1st day of August.

Resolved further, That the committees in the several townships be notified that they are expected to see tickets furnished for their several townships for the candidates for township officers.

BITTEN BY A DOG.—This morning about 9 o'clock, as Hannah Curtis was passing by the corner of Swan and Ninth streets, a very large dog that was lying on the sidewalk sprung upon her, biting her on the arm and hip. The dog evidently sprang for her throat, and had she not thrown up her arm he might have lacerated her throat as badly as was her arm and hip. Her cries for help soon attracted the attention of persons in the neighborhood, who rushed to where she was and succeeded in driving the dog off. It is said that the woman was passing along quietly when the animal sprang upon her. The dog is known in the neighborhood as a very bad one, and has long since been a terror to the same. The facts as stated above were reported to the Mayor, who immediately ordered the dog killed by sundown. To those who have canines of that kind, we would say, "chain up the dog."

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for August is received. It is illustrated with eighty-eight carefully executed engravings, besides twenty-eight fac similes of portions of letters written by the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

The leading article, by Chas. L. Brace, is an interesting and much needed exposure of the overworking of little children in New York city. The illustrations are beautiful and characteristic.

A comprehensive paper is contributed on "The Telegraph," covering every phase of the subject, and illustrated with forty excellent engravings. Among the illustrations are representations of pictures and autographs transmitted by means of the telegraph.

Charles Nordhoff commences in this number a series of articles, capitally illustrated, on the Sandwich Islands.—This first article treats of "Honolulu and Hilo, with some Craters," and contains twenty nine illustrations.

Benson J. Lossing concludes his articles on the Signers, suggested by letters from their pens, of which fac similes are given; and John Savage contributes a very interesting article on "Madame de Sevigne and her contemporaries," apropos of the recently published memoir by the Countess Puliga.

William Blaikie's paper, "Ten Years among the Rowing men,,' is very timely, and its comprehensive treatment of the subject in all its aspects, including especial reference to the risks run by men engaged in this sport, renders his contribution of permanent value.

Emilio Castelar continues his review of the German schools of speculative philosophy, and their connection with the progress of Republicanism.

Charles Reade's serial, "A Simpleton," is continued, giving us this month a thrilling narrative of lion hunting by his hero. Mrs. Lucia G. Runkle gives a characteristic sketch, timely in connection with the interest now taken in prison reform, entitled "John Blythe's Namesake;" and Augusta Larned contributes a very charming love story, called "Dolly's Day of Reckoning."

The poetry of the number is contributed by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, James Freeman Clarke, Bayard Taylor, and Mrs. S. M. B. Platt.

The Editorial Departments are timely and entertaining, full of information, suggestion, and amusement.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

The free delivery system is still gaining favor. It has been put in operation at Camden, N. J., with six carriers; at Norfolk, Va., with the same number, and at Springfield, Ill., with four.

During the week ended July 28, there have been 286 patents issued, 341 applications for inventions, and 68 caveats issued. This is an increase over the past week.

Judge Advocate General Holt is not inclined to adopt the belief that Gen. Howard will be brought before a general court martial. He does not hesitate to express his opinion, and as his reticence and caution in unfolding his views on important subjects are proverbial, it is thought by the cogniscenti that he speaks ex cathedra. He has neither received any intimation that the popular rumor is well grounded, but on the contrary is confident that the existing troubles will be settled without reference to a military tribunal.

The War Department, now that its supreme head is absent, and the wheels of business revolve "slow and unsteady," is timid in furnishing important news to the press. It states, and that somewhat explicitly, that the result of the Modoc court martial has not yet officially reached its chief bureau, the Adjutant General's Office; but it can not destroy the fact that unofficial advices have been received, and that by an officer of the Department, in which a full and detailed foreshadowing is given of the fate of the Modoc murderers. They are to be shot, one and all. There is no mistake about this. The papers have yet to go through the Secretary of War to the President for his action in the premises. General Jeff. C. Davis earnestly hopes that the approval of the Executive will supplement the findings of the court, and the statement is made that the eyes of the whole Pacific coast will be directed to the action taken by the President in the matter.

CORRESPONDENCE.

KENANSVILLE, N. C., July 27, 1873.

Mr. Editor: I crave the indulgence of being allowed a short space in your columns, trusting that these few dottings may meet with a perusal by some of your many readers.

Traveling along the line of the W. & W. R. R., we were astonished at the many improvements, and vast increase of business that has taken place within the past twelve months at the several stations, but nowhere is this fact so obvious as it is in the thriving town of Magnolia. Here many buildings have been erected, several distilleries placed in operation, and the merchants, "ever wide awake," are laying in large and well selected stocks, in anticipation of a brisk Fall trade. In fact, a spirit of "go-aheadativeness" has seized upon the masses, and is now a raging epidemic to a fearful extent.

The Monitor, a weekly paper, is a live, interesting sheet, its editorial department being presided over by an able and competent staff.

One who has not visited Magnolia for some time, would be astonished at the good order which is now observed, traceable to the rigid laws which have been enacted and amply distributed by the authorities of the town.

We visited the Natural Wells, two in number, situated about one mile and a half from Magnolia. A great curiosity they are, indeed, but we shall not attempt to give a description at present. We may perhaps do so in our next, for the benefit of such of your readers as have never beheld them, and who like to read of the wonders of nature.

Remaining in Magnolia twenty-four hours, we were taken out to the town of Kenansville by a friend, in "an A1 turnout." After an hour's ride, we "pulled up" at the hotel kept by Mr. George Southall, who, by the way, is an ancient, though not much advanced in years, Wilmingtonian. Dinner soon being announced, we were seated at the table by "mine host," and with a sharp appetite at once proceeded to do justice to the choice, rare and abundant dishes with which the table was provided. But we are trespassing on the patience of your readers by telling the quality and quantity of our dinner. Suffice it to say that the gentleman is an "old hand," and certainly "knows how to keep a hotel," and be civil and sociable to his guests, a fact which many of your citizens are aware of, and we cordially recommend a bestowal of patronage at the hands of any who may travel this way.

Kenansville, the county seat of Duplin, is quite a handsome and pleasant town, the people being hospitable to a fault. There are many live, energetic people in its midst, a fact well known by many of your leading business men—and, by the way, several of your prominent merchants are from this place. It is very pleasant here, an excellent breeze almost continually prevailing, and we can recommend Kenansville as a delightful place to such of your citizens as contemplate leaving the city for the country during the present summer season. Fruit and all the necessaries of life can be obtained in abundance, and as excellent water as one need desire. The Court House is constructed of brick and wood, and is three stories high. It is very convenient and comfortable, although of ancient construction, and is surrounded by large and majestic trees, which cast their shadows far around, thus affording shelter to man and beast from a burning midday sun.

A white man, one Washington Sellers, was brought up before a magistrate on two separate charges of larceny, one of which was for stealing the sum of forty dollars from a Mr. Carr, and the other for appropriating a piece of steel to his own use. He was bound over in the sum of one hundred dollars in each case until the next term of Superior Court.

The most notable feature, and indeed a law which, if it was in vogue all over the country, would vastly benefit its people, is in existence here, which compels all bar-rooms, and places where liquor is exposed for sale in any quantity, to be closed, and none is allowed to be sold, under a very heavy penalty; and, strange to say, as an old toper remarked in the course of an argument, "it gives universal satisfaction."

The crops generally are backward in consequence of heavy and continuous rains during the earlier part of the season, which drowned the seed and caused much grass to grow, which the farmers were necessitated to overcome and then replant the grain in some cases several times, which, as a matter of course, will cause late crops. In some sections of the country the crops look very fine indeed, and bid fair to yield well; in fact, they promise a more abundant yield than the farmers anticipated, and the indications at present are that an average yield may be expected.

We will close by narrating a little incident which occurred a short time since in this neighborhood, showing the instinct that a horse possesses. A prominent farmer (Mr. Murray) owns a very fine mare which had a colt, and when it was but two weeks old, the mare, together with the colt, was turned out to graze; coming in close proximity to a very wide and deep ditch, or gully, the colt by some mishap fell in, and not being able to get out, the mare capered up to the front gate and "whinnied" for some time, but no attention being paid to it she redoubled her efforts; the gentleman becoming satisfied from her actions that something was wrong went out to her, and on perceiving him she instantly ran off, ever and anon casting glances behind to see if succor was following, until she arrived at the identical spot where the colt had fallen in. Mr. Murray came up, and at once saw what a dilemma the colt was in, and what had caused such freaks on the part of the mare. He soon extricated the colt from its uncomfortable situation, when the mare, after kicking up her heels and tossing her head in seeming ecstacy of joy, scampered off, closely followed by the colt.

TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES MCCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

AS A FAMILY PAPER,

The TIMES will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,

The TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The TIMES stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the TIMES. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES

Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly TIMES: One copy, one year, $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

Subscripttons to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office Money Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly, Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the piace. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly, S. McGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work were paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate. WM. E. SINN,

BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873. Front Street Theatre.

CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:--The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception. Yours, truly,
JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.
Yours, Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheefully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all k nds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.
Very Respectfully, EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St.
House, Sign and Frescoe Painters.

PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.
Very Respetfully, R. DICKEY, M. D.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

Harper's Magazine.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
